"What is your favourite activity to enjoy with Beth?" ~ Nebula

Well Nebula, I'd say anything that isn't testing or modeling some new item, crazy idea, or exotic playscene! You know, I was born before the Petz 4 DLC was even released. We had basic toys, flea spray that made us sick, no medicine bottle or sliders to fix it, two dog food bowls that were the same flavor, no adorable Cargo mouse yarn balls, and yet we still managed to be content!

But I digress, where was I? Oh, that's right, things I like to do with Elizabeth... Hm. I like quiet time, just the two of us, playing fetch, and digging some holes. I'm happiest when it's peaceful and I'm getting lots of attention. I enjoy the company of maybe one other pet with me for a little while, but I get tired of being knocked down and just want to relax and gnaw on a toy without all the extra bother.

I'm getting a bit too old for the shenanigans of some of these rowdy petz with their fancy new overwrite textures and the like.

Sincerely,
Ralph

CURIOUS ABOUT GEORGE? | BY KATHLEEN

Back in the summer of 2019, I started a purebred/non-inbred line of mutts. It was my first real breeding project since returning to the PC - I didn't end up getting very far though - when George popped out with his perfect slothy eyes, selfie eyelids, and the cutest white patches (that little bum patch!) it was love at first sight.

I had so much fun raising George and getting to know him. He is so sweet, eager to please, and just wants to be friends with everyone (although his track record is.. not great). He loves to play catch with the duoball, wreck my flower garden, play flyball and soccer, and chase (and fail to catch) the frisbee! Over the years George has become more and more dear to me. He is the perfect pal to hang out with whenever I'm having a rough day, and I love to let him run around and play when I need to get some work done on my computer. George even has his own little collection of toys and clothes including a George plushie from Amanda and his very own slothy bowtie from Bunni!

Over the last year or so I decided to try showing George, and was surprised to find that he did really well in the show ring! He is currently working towards the coveted Legend title (with only about 100 points left to go!) as well as his Good Petz Citizen, agility, trick show, and frisbee titles. I'm loving the challenge of showing him, as well as the time spent together working on his show entries. ♥
