INTERVIEWS WITH TATO, FEATURING KIERAN!

What is your favorite petz flavor for food? (besides cheese, cause we know everyone loves cheese.)

Honestly, I've always thought the beef treats look good. I don't know, I'd give 'em a try if they were real.

If you could have anything for your game what would it be? (remember, you can't have me!)

Smile.dog! I'm so mad at my younger self because I requested one and a great hexer (I can't remember who... barguestspirit maybe?) indulged me. Unfortunately, a year or two later I MPA'd it and I regret it every day. I used to compulsively clean out my Petz, but I feel like Petz maximalism is more common these days. The shift in trends was too late for some really nice hexies though. (Please do not look this up if you don't like horror!)

If you made a Petz 6 what new feature would you want to include? (besides the obvious cheese platter.)

I can't believe I've never thought about this stuff... I guess more original breedz, but GOOD ones that are hexed more properly than the Ubisoft Pug for example. I'd really love to see a petzy sighthound or a husky.

Who is your favorite pet and why? (don't worry I won't tell your other petz...)

Baby, of course! I saw him on Shipwreck - all alone on the singles page because he didn't look like his siblings - and I was completely enamored. When I got him out to take pictures he was full of personality! He's a VERY naughty young man - he shakes his butt at the screen a lot, and unless I minimize it, he'll try to bonk stuff out of the carrying case. He was a menace to my pet Morgan until Lily helped me reintroduce them with different copies of his file. We persisted until we had a copy of Baby that didn't hate her! Baby was also a kitten when I adopted him, so I decided I would naturally raise him, and the rest is history!

If you could pursue any job in the world what would it be? (obviously, caretaker of his majesty is a filled position...pity.)

OHHH MAN. Okay, so I thought acting (and possibly comedy) was my vocation for a few years, but then I started questioning myself. Now I'm considering investigative journalism. I think it would be very intellectually stimulating, which is a necessity for me. Not that acting isn't intellectually stimulating, but it's a different kind y'know? Plus, I have a degree of sorts in creative writing and I'm not quite there with theatre. But I'm not in school right now either way, so we'll see how that pans out at some point in the future.

Who is one of your petz heroes and why?

(again...I state besides the OBVIOUS choice, which is myself.)

Oh wow, that's a good question! I've always looked up to Arie - she's very kind. I have a distinct memory of her comforting me after I got in a fight with someone on a forum. She is a beloved member of the community, and her hexing is very cute!

Which crew pet would represent you best and why?

(I'm afraid I don't represent others quite as well as myself.)

I guess in terms of which of my Petz I'm most like, it would be Cayenne. I can be a sort of grumpy person in real life (a la an alley cat), but I can also be very gentle and nurturing, and so is Cayenne. He's also besotted with his 'wife' Zamazenta, and I am a very romantic person. Cayenne is my icon on Whiskerwick, in fact! (It would be Baby but I can't bear to change it from sad clown Cayenne.)

And finally, what are your favorite petz items in the community available now? (personally I'd say cheese bowls...Cheese toys...CHEESE, am I right?)

My favorite toy has got to be Mazzew's bong vase - sorry, I have the sense of humor of a middle schooler! And my favorite clothing items are Queenie's skirts.

this concludes...

JINGLE JANGLE BY REBEKAH

One pet I love is Jingle! Most people in the Petz Life Discord know of her - she was a pet I got on the first day of Advent last year. At the time we still had dear Clyde, Discord's AI Chatbot, with us. Before he was shut down I asked him for a single name suggestion that was Christmassy. Fittingly, Clyde suggested Jingle (iykyk). This was also the last word Clyde ever spoke to us. Therefore, I aptly gave Jingle the show name "Clydes Last Jingle".

Through Jingle, Clyde will always be remembered. Jingle is super upbeat, funny, and loves running around and chewing bones. She seems to get on with almost all of my other petz, even the few cats I have introduced her to. Just like Clyde, Jingle is a friend to all!
